■ The San Francisco-based Vision Series Dance Festival will take place February 25. Established in 1999 by dancer and choreographer Donnette Heath, the Vision Series brings emerging professional choreographers and their companies to work with Bay Area high school dancers, then presents the resulting works in a professional showcase. This year's show will feature both new works and revivals from the festival's seven-year repertory. Info: www.dancerepertory.org
